THE CONSTITUTION.

VOLUME I. ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FRIDAY DECEMBER 11, 1868. NUMBER 152

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, DECEMBER 10.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

[CONCLUDED.]

The acquisition of Alaska was made with the view of extending national jurisdiction and republican principles in the American hemisphere. Believing that a further step could be taken in the same direction, I, last year, entered into a treaty with the King of Denmark for the purchase of the island of St. Thomas and St. John, on the best terms then attainable, and with the express consent of the people of those islands. This treaty still remains under consideration in the Senate. A new convention has been entered into with Denmark, enlarging the time fixed for the final ratification of the original treaty. Comprehensive national policy would seem to sanction the acquisition and incorporation into our Federal Union of the several adjacent continental and insular communities, as speedily as it can be done peacefully, lawfully, and without any violation of national justice, faith, or honor. Foreign possession or control of these communities has hitherto hindered the growth and impaired the influence of the United States. Revolution and anarchy there would be equally injurious. Each one of them, which firmly established as an independent republic, or when incorporated into the United States, would be a source of strength and power. Conforming my administration to these principles, I have, on no occasion, lent support or toleration to unlawful expeditions, set on foot upon the plea of republican propagandism, or of national extension or aggrandisement. The necessity, however, of repressing such unlawful movements clearly indicates the duty which rests upon us of adapting our legislative action to the new circumstances of the decline of European monarchial power and influence, and the increase of American republican ideas, interests, and sympathies. It cannot be long before it will become necessary for this Government to lend some effective aid to the solution of the political and social problems which are convulsing nearly the whole world but the two republics of the island of St. Domingo, and which are now disclosing themselves, more distinctly than heretofore, in the island of Cuba. The subject is commended to your consideration, with the more earnestness, because I am satisfied that the time has arrived when even so direct a proceeding, as a proposition for an annexation of the two Republics of the island of St. Domingo, would not only receive the consent of the people interested, but would also give satisfaction to all other foreign nations. I am aware that upon the question of further extending our possessions, it is apprehended by some that our political system cannot successfully be applied to an area more extended than our continent, and the conviction is gaining ground in the American mind, that, with the increased facilities for intercommunion between all portions of the earth, the principles of free government, as embodied in our constitution, if faithfully maintained and carried out, would prove of increased strength and breadth, to comprehend within their sphere and influences, the civilized of the world. The attention of the Senate and of Congress is again respectfully invited to the treaty for the establishment of commercial intercourse with the Norwegian kingdom, entered into last year, and already ratified by that Government. The attitude of the United States towards these islands is not very different from that in which they stand towards the West Indies. It is known and felt by the Hawaiian Government and people that their Government and institutions are feeble and precarious; that the United States being so near a neighbor, would be unwilling to see the islands pass under foreign control. Their prosperity is continually disturbed by expectations and alarms of unfriendly political proceedings, as well from the United States as from other foreign powers. A reciprocity treaty, while it would not materially diminish the revenue of the United States, would be a guarantee of the good will and forbearance of all nations, until the people of the islands shall, of themselves, at no distant day, voluntarily apply for admission into the Union. The Emperor of Russia has acceded to the treaty negotiated here in January last for the security of trade marks in the interest of manufactures and commerce. I have called his attention to the importance of establishing now, while it seems easy and practicable, a fair and equal regulation of the vast fisheries belonging to the two nations in the waters of the North Pacific Ocean. The treaties between the United States and Italy for the regulation of Consular powers and the extradition of criminals negotiated and ratified during the last session of Congress, have been accepted and confirmed by the Italian government. A liberal consular convention, which has been negotiated with Belgium, will be submitted to the Senate. The very important treaties which were negotiated between the United States and North Germany and Bavaria for the regulation of the rights of naturalized citizens have been duly ratified and exchanged, and similar treaties have been entered into with the kingdoms of Belgium and Wertemberg, and with the Grand Duchies of Baden and Hesse Darmstadt. I hope soon to be able to submit equally satisfactory conventions of the same character, now in course of negotiation, with the respective governments of Spain, Italy, and the Ottoman Empire. Examination of claims against the United States by the Hudson Bay Company and the Puget Sound Agricultural Company on account of certain possessory rights in the State of Oregon and Territory of Washington alleged by those companies in virtue of provisions of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, of June 15, 1846, has been diligently prosecuted under the direction of the joint international commission to which they were submitted for adjudication by the two governments. The commission, after duly organized, and will, it is expected, be concluded at an early day. No practical regulation concerning colonial trade and the fisheries can be accomplished by treaty between the United States and Great Britain, while the more extensive questions, because I am satisfied that the time has arrived when committed under the authority of their respective governments. Negotiations upon these subjects are pending, and I am not without hope of being able to lay before the senate for its consideration, during the present session, facts calculated to bring to an end those justly exciting and long existing controversies. We are not advised of the action of the Chinese Government upon the liberal and auspicious treaty which was recently celebrated with its plenipotentiaries at this capital. Japan remains a theatre of civil war, marked by religious inciden's and political severities familiar to that long isolated empire. The Executive has hitherto maintained strict neutrality among the belligerents, and acknowledges with gratifying satisfaction the friendly intercourse which has so long happily existed between the two countries remains unchanged. I renew the recommendation contained in my communication to Congress, dated the 18th of July last, a copy of which accompanies this message, as the judgment of the people should be taken on the propriety of so amending the Federal Constitution that it shall provide, first, for an election of President and Vice President by a direct vote of the people, instead of through the agency of electors, and making them ineligible for re-election; second, for a distinct designation of the person who shall discharge the duties of President in the event of a vacancy in that office by the death, resignation, or removal of both the President and Vice-President Third, for the election of Senators of the United States directly by the people of the several States, instead of by the Legislatures; and, fourth, for the limitation to a period of years of the terms of Federal Judges. Profoundly impressed with the propriety of making these important modifications in the Constitution, I respectfully submit them for the early and mature consideration of Congress. We should, as far as possible, remove all pretext for violations of the organization law, by remedying such imperfections as time and experience may develop, ever remembering that the Constitution which, at any time exists until changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people is successfully obligatory upon all. In the performance of a duty imposed upon me by the Constitution, I have communicated to Congress information of the state of the Union, and recommended for their consideration such measures as have seemed to me necessary and expedient. If carried into effect, they will hasten the accomplishment of the great and beneficent purposes, for which the Constitution was ordained, and which it comprehensively states were to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, and promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity. In Congress are vested all legislative powers, and upon them devolves the responsibility as well for framing unwise and excessive laws as for neglecting to devise and put into measures absolutely demanded by the wants of the country. Let us earnestly hope that before the expiration of our respective terms of service, now rapidly drawing to a close, an all wise Providence will so guide our councils as to strengthen and preserve the Federal Union, inspire reverence for the Constitution, restore prosperity and happiness to our whole people, and promote "on earth peace and good will toward men."

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

☞ When the PLANTATION BITTERS were first made known to the American people some seven years ago, it was supposed that they were an entirely new thing, and had never before been used. So far as their general use in the United States is concerned, this may be true. It is also true that the same Bitters were made and sold in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as any old planter, merchant or sea captain doing business with the West Indies will tell you. It is distinctly within my recollection that on the return of my father (who was a sea captain, and doing an extensive trade in the tropics,) he would invariably have these Bitters among the ship's stores, and our family sideboard was never without them. For any sickness, it matters not how severe or trifling, the decanter of these Bitters, by a different name, was always resorted to as a sovereign remedy.

CULTIVATION OF TOBACCO IN NORTHERN GEORGIA.—The Chronicle and Sentinel says there is a growing interest manifested in the cultivation of tobacco in northern Georgia. The climate and soil are found to be in no way inferior to that of Virginia, and some specimens showed us manufactured at Clarkesville will compare favorably with the best Lynchburg chewing tobacco.

ISABELLA IN THE NEWSPAPER BUSINESS. Isabella of Spain, it is said, is about to start a newspaper in Paris to combat the claims of Don Carlos and the Duke of Montpensier to the Spanish throne, and to criticise the acts of the Spanish Provisional Government. She is to begin with an investment of $40,000.

WANT OF SOCIAL UNITY.— A well ordained society is composed of congenial thoughts, tastes, feelings, sentiments and interests. It is an aggregation of homogeneous individualities — a union of elements in a common channel, as confluent streams that swell the mighty sea. Its separate purposes fire identical at a given point. What we lack in Atlanta is a social compact, based upon a community of interest and sympathy. We are not wanting in material for an organization whose controlling spirit should be that of true fellowship, but, as yet, like most young and rapidly increasing cities, whose population are drawn together from all quarters, the elements which should enter into our social system, have not been welded together in distinct combinations. In the eager race of our ordinary pursuits, we lose sight, in a great measure, of those cooperative agencies which are essential to the common good. Our moral, social and political, as well as material interests are best subserved by a union of their several forces into one. That our virtues may not languish in neglect, and our generous impulses be chilled by the wintry touch of selfishness, we need to be drawn together by the more endearing ties of social companionship. With our material interests paramount to all others, we can never so successfully reach their aims as through a union of social influences. To secure unity of purpose and design in public enterprises, the individual citizen should be made to feel that he is an integral part of an organism embracing the whole, instead of a mere atom without any connection with a common system.

So long as each member of a community feels that he bears no relation to its other members, his thoughts and desires will be absorbed in schemes of selfish emprise, when, if awakened to a sense of his obligations to others, in a society of mutual dependencies, he would feel that the promotion of the common good is his own.

The cultivation of the social virtues is requisite to the promotion of those objects, literary, religious, benevolent, convivial, or maternal, which are the soul of society. To be happy and prosperous, must be based upon a covenant between mutual benefits, in accord with the multitude of sentiments and interests entering into its composition. What we most need is a proper application of the material at hand. We have in a loose, floating and unorganized state, the necessary elements for the best of society. As yet they have not taken their proper places in the social commonwealth. We should seek to combine these elements with their proper affinities in a natural sphere. So long as each individual member of the community feels that he is a separate particle, bearing no relation whatever to the common body, we will look in vain for those happy results which are achieved by well organized communities. With a social unity adjusting society according to its several grades, each member of the community would become a power of good whose influence would be felt in every direction.

INCOME OF NEW YORK JOURNALS.— According to the World the following is a statement of the taxes paid by the leading journals in New York city upon sales and subscriptions, (not including advertisements), for three months, from July to October, 1868:

UNCONDITIONAL AMNESTY.—The National Intelligencer advocates the unconditional pardon of Mr. Davis, Gen. Lee, and all the rest of the Confederates who were excepted in the last proclamation of the President. It says: "If the present President shall leave this matter in its present unsettled condition, we have a strong suspicion that Gen. Grant will, by a prompt act of amnesty, dispose of each and all the remaining cases. Such a proclamation might be held by some to justify what Mr. Johnson has already done, but there are far more who would say that what the one had lacked the decision to deal with, had been acted upon by the other with vigor and statesmanlike decision."

ELECTION OF PROFESSORS.—The Board of Trustees of the University of Georgia, at its session yesterday, in this city, says the Macon Journal and Messenger, made the following elections: A new Chair, that of History and Political Science, was created, and Hon. A. H. Stephens selected to fill it. Major Charles Morris, late Professor in William and Mary College, Va., was elected Professor of Belles Letters and Gratory; and Mr. M. J. Smead, of Montgomery, Ala., Professor of Modern Languages. The election of adjunct Professor of Ancient Languages was postponed till the next regular session of the Board, in August, 1869. The Board adjourned last night.

Mr. Sumner's Provisional Bill and Governor Bullock.

Congress starts out upon a red-hot scheme. Its eyes flash with Promethean fire, and its rage is kindled anew with the flame of Lucifer. Disdainfully trampling the President's message underfoot, it singles poor Georgia out as the first object of its ire. Though crushed between its "upper and nether mill-stones" for a long period, she was not ground to a powder sufficiently fine to suit the delicate taste of Mr. Sumner and his kind. Hence his proposition to remand her back into a provisional existence, subject again to the paramount control of Congress. Though conceived and brought forth by the procreative powers of Radicalism, they now propose to cast her off as an illegitimate child. She is still of too doubtful paternity to be permitted to go at large under the sanction of the royal seal.

The Grant Shibboleth in the late canvass was, "Let us have peace!" It was proclaimed as significant of what would follow his election. The country wanted peace. Its domestic relations, commercial and other interests, had suffered too long in the absence of ordinary tranquility. We were told in Georgia, first, that Congressional reconstruction would give us the boon. We accepted the proffered terms. Then, the cry was, elect Grant, and it will be a pledge of the country in favor of reconstruction and peace. Georgia is reconstructed, Grant elected, and yet the first proposition in Congress is to territorialize the State. She had scarcely laid aside her swaddling clothes before she is required to put them on again. She must be made to crawl in the dust again before she is permitted to walk. Her humiliation is not complete. She must be riven by another earth quake of social and political disorder.

The strangest spectacle of all in this new tragic scene is that Bullock—Bullock, a member of the Convention — Bullock, one of the framers of the Constitution — Bullock, an advocate of its adoption, and Bullock, the first Governor elected under it after its acceptance by that body, should appear before Congress pleading and praying that Georgia may again be placed under military rule. His conduct is inexplicable. It is unwarranted by any demand of reason, justice or equity. It is condemned by the lovers of peace in all the land. It is opposed by the right-thinking portion, embracing a majority of the prominent men in his own party in the State. It is censured by moderate Republicans everywhere.

At a time when all parties in the State were quietly acquiescing in the result of reconstruction, Governor Bullock casts a new fire-brand into the camp — raises an issue not demanded by his own party—and springs a new source of discord prolific of more evils than were ever conceived by the fabulous Pandora.

Governor Bullock may think to raise a rod of terror over the people of Georgia, but we sincerely trust that his revolutionary scheme will be overruled by Congress even as it is unauthorized by his party in this State.

Literary.

We have had a hasty glance at the "Life of M. M. (Brick) Pomeroy," by Mrs. Mary E. Tucker, from the publishing house of Carleton, New York. In a critical sense objections may be urged to both subject and biography. The only fact in the history of "Brick" worth any thing to the American people is that, as a self-made man, brimful of energy and dash, he has in the face of many obstacles, won success. Herein he furnishes an example which young men without fame and fortune would do well to imitate. We presume this phase of his character was the one which prompted the fair author to bring her subject thus prominently before the public. We content ourselves, however, to overlook other objections, which might be brought forth in view of the fact that Mrs. Tucker is an Alabamian by birth and a Georgian by adoption. In addition to Mrs. T.'s "Life" we are pleased to learn that she has lately been engaged by Bonner as a regular contributor to the Ledger. While Bonner knows more about the qualities of Dexter than the merits of a literary article, his sagacity in the selection of writers and in the circulation of the Ledger is well-known. She is also a regular contributor to several other leading New York journals. Besides these labors Mrs. Tucker has brought out a volume of "Poems" within the last two years. Whilst her poems are marked by many defects—immaturity of thought and carelessness in expression, they nevertheless now and then send out the ring of the true metal. "A Broadway Idyl," the latest of her published metrical productions, is before us. We excerpt the passage given below. Mrs. T. is young, pretty, fascinating, and quite popular in literary circles in New York:

Hark! surely there is music on the air;
'Tis "Dixie" floating on this Northern breeze.
Thrilling each Southern heart with thoughts
Of a lost Nation's hope and her despair.
This world is strange! 'tis an anomaly;
For glancing downward in the street I see
A one-armed soldier, in a coat of blue—
And, by-the-by, his legs are missing too,
Grinding with his one hand, the "Dixie" song.
Perchance, who knows, that very tune was play'd
When in the midst of some mad martial raid
The missile came along,
Which left of noble manhood but the wreck;
Now standing by his side, is one
I know, a warrior, brave for Southern rights:
All strife is ended, and all warring done.
And the blue-clad soldier's eyes seem dancing lights,
As in his hand the Southern warrior places
His mite; true, 'tis a small donation,
But it betrays the great appreciation
Of a brave soul for spirit kindred born.

GLAD TO SEE HIM.—Col. James Gardner, now of New York, says the Journal and Messenger, made us a very pleasant visit last night. We are glad to see him in good health, and to know that he takes a hopeful view of "the situation" in southwestern Georgia, so far as his labor and agricultural interests are concered. The negroes are making contracts for the next year, and generally show a disposition to remain where they have been for the present year.

☞ Bureau General Howard gives the highest number of colored schools, day and night, in Georgia, reported during the year at 132; teachers 174; pupils 8,830; and besides these there are 80 Sabbath Schools with 502 teachers and 15,141 pupils, and 3 industrial schools with 180 pupils.

THE CHARLESTON ELECTION.—The Court of Appeals of South Carolina, before whom the action of the old City Council setting aside the late election was carried, has issued a mandamus commanding them to declare said election, and allow said petitioners to enter upon their said several and respective offices, or show cause on Tuesday, the eigth day of December, A. D., 1868, why they refuse to do so.—Savannah Republican.

Gov. Bullock and the Chattahoochee Circuit.

In the Columbus Enquirer of the 6th inst., there is a reply to my article in reference to the appointment of Judge Worrell to the Chattahoochee Circuit. The author of the reply waives an inquiry into the validity of Gov. Bullock's act in making the appointment, but contends that Judge Worrell's decisions are not void, because his authority to make them may be traced to his old commission. With that I have nothing to do. The question is what authority had Gov. Bullock for appointing Judge Worrell to hold the office "until his successor is appointed?" If he had no power to make such an appointment, and under it Judge Worrell acts, his judgments are void. I did not write to prove that Judge Worrell was wrongfully exercising the power of a Judge; I wrote to show that Governor Bullock's attempt to place him upon the bench during his Excellency's pleasure was a usurpation, and that "all acts done, and judgments rendered by the judicial officer so appointed, would be also null and void." If, outside of Gov. Bullock's appointment, Judge Worrell has a valid and subsisting authority to hold the courts, then, of course, his decisions are valid.

Meanwhile the great question remains: What clause of the new Constitution conferred on Gov. Bullock authority to make this appointment in such manner? If he could give to the Chattahoochee Circuit a Judge whose term of office was to continue until his successor was appointed, he could thrust similar appointments on all the other circuits, and each Judge in the State—including those of the Supreme Court—would hold his office at the will of the Governor, and that state of affairs might continue as long as he was Governor.

This is matter for grave consideration.

CHATTAHOOCHEE.

Farmers' Convention.

MACON, GA., Dec. 9, 1868.

Pursuant to a call made by a Committee appointed by an assembly of farmers from various counties at Eatonton, Ga., on 21st October, a Convention, composed of delegates from different counties of the State, met to organize an Immigration Society for the State of Georgia.

On motion, B. T. Harris, of Hancock county, was made Chairman, and Sam'l A. Echols, of Fulton, Secretary.

The Chairman, after returning thanks for the honor conferred, and stating the object of the meeting, announced it organized and ready for business.

C. W. Howard, of Bartow county, moved, that

Whereas, the individual societies or associations are competent to effect but little in the project of procuring immigration, owing to the pecuniary inability of our people; and,

Whereas, Owing to a misunderstanding existing in the mind of a number of the delegates causing them to be one day behind the time of its assembling,

Resolved, That this Convention appoint a Committee to memorialize the Legislature of the State of Georgia, and pray that honorable body that it create departments of Agriculture and Immigration, and appoint Commissioners of the same.

Resolved, That after the appointment of said Committee this Convention adjourn until to-morrow 10th inst.

An amendment was offered to Mr. Howard's motion by E. A. Nesbit, of Bibb, providing that the proposed Committee report their memorial to this Convention to-morrow, that it may be considered and referred to other Conventions that will also meet in Macon to-morrow for their endorsement.

On motion the Convention was adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

B. J. HARRIS, Chairman.
SAM'L A. ECHOLS, Secretary.

THE DISASTER.—The Louisville papers of Monday come to us filled with details of the terrible disaster incident to the collision between the two mail boats, the United States and the America, on the Ohio river, near Warsaw, Ky., Friday night last.

The following are reported lost:

Mrs. R. A. Jones and daughter Eva, of Waynesboro, Ohio; Eliza Ford, colored; Revs. Parvin and Rising, of New York; Harriet Waring, of New Albany, and a young lady in her employ; Mrs. Bigby, John F. Burns, J. M. Ledower, M. J. Cook, Mrs. George W. Goff, Wm. Garvin, Louis Johnson, Mr. Speigleberg, Dr. H. H. Burkholder, Miss Mary L. Johnson, Mrs. Jack Pearce and son, James Johns, 3d clerk of United States, of Louisville; Steele Bright, O. B. Sappington and L. H. Vance, of Madison; John Fennel, steward; Rich'd Marshall, second steward; James Fennel, barkeeper; Dan, barber, colored; Mrs. Commodore Thompson and a lady traveling with her; Mrs. Chas. Hays, Nashville; J. Massett, Owensville, Ohio; Harvey Brunswick, billiard table manufacturer, Cincinnati: Smith, cabin boy, Madison; lame gentleman and wife, New Hampshire; gentleman and sister, Natchitoches, and two ladies, put on board the United States by Mr. Whalen, of Philadelphia — names unknown. Seven of the officers and cabin crew, and eighteen deck hands are supposed to be lost. The body of an unknown man was picked up at Vevay.

CHINESE GARDENING.—An American who is now residing in China, writes home as follows: We seek to exclude nature by art, levelling hills, drying up lakes, felling trees, bringing paths into a straight line, constructing fountains at a great expense, and raising flowers in rows. The Chinese, on the contrary, by means of art, endeavor to imitate nature. Thus in these gardens there are labarynths of artificial hills, intersected with numerous paths and roads, some straight and others undulating, some in the plain and the valley, others carried over bridges, and to the summit of the hill by means of rustic work of stones and shells. The lakes are interspersed with islets upoh which small pleasure houses are constructed, and which are reached by meaus of boats and bridges. To these houses, when fatigued with fishing, the emperor retires accompanied by his ladies. The woods contain hares, deer, and game in great numbers, and a certain animal resembling the deer, which produces musk. Some of the open spaces are sown with grain and vegetables, and are interspersed with fruit trees and plots of flowers. Wherever a convenient situation offers, lies a house of recreation or a dwelling for eunuchs. There is also a seraglio, with a large open space in front.

THE BEST EXAMPLE OF GEORGIA PLANTING.—A friend, writing to the Telegraph, says that David Dickson of Hancock, will make this year 800 bales of cotton on 800 acres of land. Let us foot up the net results, as we have good reason to believe them to be:

800 bales of cotton - - - - - -	$80,000
Less labor - - - - - - -	$20,000

☞ "How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a parson of his landlady one day during a conversation about the old saints and the apostles.

"Ah! he was a good, clever old soul, I know, for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions, for conscience sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."

NEED OF REST.—A writer in Lippincott's Magazine says:

Head-workers need more rest than hand-workers. The old saw precisely inverted the proprieties of the case, so far as it involved them, declaring that "seven hours' sleep suffice the studene, eight the laboring man and nine the fool." Three hours of hard brain work destroy, as before observed, more nervous tissue, and cause a greater subtraction of the phosphates from the system than an ordinary day's work at mere mechanical labor, the proportion in grains (of weight) being as 86:77. Above everything else brain-workers need sleep, everything else brain-workers need sleep, early sleep and late sleep, and enough in the middle to feel "real stupid" at the end of it.

Stupidity is precisely the condition into which this class of toilers should manage and devise and strive to get themselves for a time, longer or shorter, each twenty-four hours. Nothing rests the brain and the whole working system like it. Narcotic stupidity, the product of ale, tobacco or wine is not the thing referred to, though perhaps emergencies this may be had recourse to as a medicine—but the quiet, reposed re-adjustment of the nervous conditions, and the recharging with vital force of the nerve batteries, the contacts not yet closed, the galvanic currents, therefore, not yet seen in motion but only filling up the system with a blind, diffused feeling of healthy sensations and reserved efficiency.

☞ The venerable Jacob Barker yesterday received his final discharge in bankruptcy from all his liabilities, which, according to his amended schedule, exceeded in amount a half million of dollars. Although due notice had been served upon the creditors, there was no opposition made to the discharge. Mr. Barker, though in his eighty-sixth year, is still hale and hearty, and intends, we believe, to enter again into the busy whirl of commercial life.—New Orleans Picayune, 26th.

IT WILL WASH

THIS VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT that has met with such unbounded success throughout the East, West, and North and the parts of the South where it has been introduced,

IS NOW ON EXHIBITION AND FOR SALE
AT THE STORE OF
Echols, Langford & McCrath,
Key Stone Block,
Whitehall street,
Atlanta, Georgia,

Where we cordially invite all to call and see its operations. The idea of washing clothes without rubbing or wear to the material is now no longer a mystery. It is being practically used, and with entire satisfaction by many of the best citizens of this city, and hundreds and thousands of people throughout the East and West.

Mr. DeWitt is owner of the Southern and Pacific States and Territories for this valuable invension, and will sell interests by the County and State, to any one wishing a sure and paying business at prices that cannot but suit the purchaser.

States and Counties that have been sold for this improvement have since sold at enormous figures in comparison to the price we ask. For instance, Illinois was sold for $6 000 and since sold for $40,000; counties in Kentucky, that we sold for $60 by the State has since sold for $600, and I can safely say that so far no man has invested his money but what is making a fortune We can give name and address of nearly every one that has purchased rights in the United States, so parties can correspond with them and get their views on the investment they made.

HENRY JOHNSON, p. o. c., about two months ago stole a horse from R. P. Griffith and made his escape. The police was informed of the fact, but could not catch the thief, until to-day, Capt. Murphy run up with him and has him now safe in the lock-up.

WHITE'S GARDENING FOR THE SOUTH.—Orange, Judd & Co., publishers, 245, Broadway, New York, we are indebted for a copy of the above work. It is the production of the late William N. White, of Athens, Ga., with additions by Mr. J. Van Buren, and Dr. James Camak, revised and newly stereotyped.

The work needs no commendation at our hands. As the founder of the Southern Cultivator, and by his life-long devotion to the interests of agriculture and its co-ordinate branches, Mr. White is well known to the citizens of this State. "Gardening for the South" which should be in the hands of every family, may be had of J. J. & S. P. Richards, Alabama street, at $2.00.

TALLEY & SISSON have received another lot of STRIPED PRINTS, BLEACHED and BROWN DOMESTICS, &c. dec10 d4t

BANQUET TO THE ELECTORS.—The banquet given by the resident members of the State Executive Committee, to the Democratic Electors, Friday night, at Pease's restaurant, was one of those occasions which take their place among most pleasant memories. Wit, mirth and social repartee were the presiding deities. Pease and his Wife served for the occasion a supper that would have done credit to Delmonico, or tempted the late of a Broadway epicure. The bill of fare was replete with the choicest viands and the most approved brands of Cognac, Sherry and Champagne At a late hour the party retired with the best of feeling, and regretting that such occasions are not more frequent in the midst of our work-day lives

TALLEY & SISSON can be found at W. W. Chapman's in Markham's block, opposite the old stand of Talley, Brown & Co.—where they keep a WELL-SELECTED and ENTIRELY NEW STOCK OF DRY GOODS dec10-d4t

THE CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—Well, the reader will ask what it is. We will answer: It is a large, neatly printed and interesting journal bearing the above title, and containing twenty-eight columns of original and well selected reading matter, in the shape of literature, miscellany and advertisements. The Young Men's Library Association are the publishers and proprietors, and to which institution the profits of the paper are to be applied.

We wish the present number eminent success, should we never "look upon its like again."

The zeal, energy and industry of Col. E. Y. Clark, by whom the enterprise was gotten up, and to whose literary taste, skill and judgment it is indebted for its success, worthy of all praise.

MAZEPPA.—Notwithstanding the several entertainments offered to the citizens of Atlanta, last night, a very large and select audience assembled to greet Mr. John Templeton and his accomplished corps, at Davis' Hall.

Miss Raymond, as Mazeppa, charmed the audience, and the sagacity displayed by the beautiful horse was really wonderful. It is beyond all question the best exhibition of the kind ever offered the good people of Atlanta, and we advise all who wish to spend a pleasant evening, devoid of any unpleasant recollections, to attend the repetition of the play to-night. There is nothing in the performance which should offend the most fastidious taste.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—The Varieties are doing better than ever, and, judging from the crowded houses they draw, their entertainments are appreciated by the public. To-night, Johnny Weaver—the inimitable Weaver—takes a benefit. Of course it will be a rouser. Weaver has a host of friends in Atlanta, and they will "go" for him with a vim. He promises any amount of new songs, new acts, new jokes, dances, etc. If there is a man in town who has the blues, he should go by all means.

A mammoth silver goblet, valued at forty dollars and which can be seen at George Sharpe's jewelry store, will be presented to the fire company selling the greatest number of tickets.

THE CITIZEN AND NEWSPAPER.—There is a very intimate relation existing between the reader and his regularly received newspaper, says the Macon Telegraph. The relation is similar, in one respect, to those existing between a community of people and the merchant with whom they deal. Every one resorts to the merchant to dispose of his surplus, and to procure necessities he does not possess, the merchant acting as a medium of exchange, supplying the deficiencies of one with the surplus of another. Every person looks to the paper for interesting local news as the consumer looks to the merchant for his supplies; but it is not every person that thinks of keeping the newspaper supplied with news as the consumer does the merchant with any overplus in his productions. People will ask, "why don't you have more local news?" and yet, if they knew an interesting item, would never impart it to the editor for the benefit of the paper and of those who do not know it. The increase of interesting reading matter will more than counterbalance any trouble or expense encountered by giving in these little items that go so far toward making a paper lively and useful. Let our friends tell us of events worthy of note that have transpired in our midst, or any new enterprise being inaugurated among them. Let them send us information by mail, giving the points of anything that may have taken place. If the readers of the Telegraph would pursue this course, they could soon make it a complete compendium of information of what is daily transpiring in the State. It would, in many instances, be of incalculable benefit to them, by directing the attention of capital and enterprise to any local advantages for manufacturing or other improvements in their several sections of country. Will you all heed this, or will many of you continue in the "good old way."

THE RIGHT OF SECESSION.—Professor Bledsoe, editor of the Baltimore Southern Quarterly Review, having, in a recent issue of that magazine, sharply criticised Mr. Stephens' book upon the late civil war, Mr. S. rejoins in a long letter to a Baltimore paper, defining his position upon the points raised by the Professor, and especially upon the question of the rights of the States—that of secession particularly. In his letter Mr. S. says:

"It was not by virtue of the Constitution that this right (of secession) was to be exercised, but by the virtue of that sovereignty of the State by which the constitutional compact was entered into."

"These are the principles in which I was educated. From the time that I entered public life, and even before, I held the same, as the records can abundantly establish."

Having been censured for reproducing the Declaratoin of Independence in his book, he gives excellent reasons for having done so. Among them that the title is as follows:

"In Congress, July 5th, 1776.—The Unanimous Declaration of the thirteen United States of America."

It was no declaration of national independence, says Mr. Stephens, "or the independence of a nation, but the independence of separate States."

IMPORTANT TO SOUTHERN CLAIMANTS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says: A question of great interests to Southern claimants is to be decided at the approaching term of the United States Court of Claims. The solicitor for the United States at the last term interposed the plea, in reference to the cotton cases and all other cases of captured and abandoned property, that the rebellion was suppressed on the 1st of June, 1865, when Kirby Smith surrendered; and as all claimants under the statute must prefer their claims in the Court of Claims within two years after the suppression of the rebellion, all claims preferred after the 1st of June, 1867, must be dismissed. It is understood that upon the previous argument the Court was equally divided—two to two. The question at the coming term will be argued before a full bench of five judges. The decision may be different, when it is remembered that the late Congressional action has fixed the date on which the rebellion was suppressed as the 20th of August, 1866, the date of the President's proclamation of peace.

DAN CASTELLO

WAR CAMELS

Are Coming! Are Coming!

The Greatest and Most

NOVEL FEATURE of the AGE!

Will Exhibit at Atlanta,

MONDAY, DECEMBER 14th,

Admission 75 Cents; Children under 10 years of age 50 Cents.

Mr. Dan Castello takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the South that, to give increased attraction to his already vast combination of talent and attractions, he has imported a HERD OF ABYSSINIAN WAR CAMELS, or, War Ships of the Desert, at a cost of over forty thousand dollars ($40,000), and which will be attached to the CHARIOT OF THEODORE This Chariot has been pronounced the most beautiful piece of workmanship, and was built from designs and suggestions made by an officer of the British army, who served during the Abyssian and Indian wars, and bears upon its centre a colossal statute of the GOLDEN HORSE OF TARTARY, and elegantly carved, and surrounded by elegant Banners, Flags and Streamers, Camel, Lion and animal heads.

Each performances will commence with a grand and entirely new Arabian Nights Carnival, entitled THE REVOLT OF THE HAREM. In which will be introduced Camels, Arabs Ladies Gentlemen, Children to the number of One Hundred, with gorgeous costumes, rich paraphernalia and costly trappings and properties.

DAN CASTELLO'S

Great Show

AND

Abyssinian Caravan!

Fourth Annual Tour of the Great Equestrian Establishment which is well known throughout the country as the

LEADING CIRCUS IN AMERICA

And which during the present season, with its new and magnificent features never before presented in this country, will be be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest, far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performance given by Dan Castello's GREAT SHOW in the South, and also during its summer tours, has stimulated the management to renewed exertions, and it is confidently asserted, beyond the power of contradiction, that the performance of this Troupe, during the present season, will be found far superior to any ever given on this Continent. This company is, in every respect, THE BEST IN THE WORLD, there being no Equestrian establishment on the Eastern Hemisphere whose performances are so novel, recherche, refined and artistic, and which have evoked such admiration and astonishment in all the specialties of the arena.

The following eminent artists are Dan Castello's new Star Troupe. Two champion bare-back riders in the ring at the same time, CHAS. FISH and SIG. SEBASTIAN.

This is an unprecedented combination, affording the public an opportunity to witness two Star Bare Back Riders in the arena at the same time, and whose acts are entirely different and dissimilar, and who will each be stimulated to greater acts of daring to out-herald each other in acts of horsemanship.

M'lle De Berg,

The Phenomena Equestrienne, from France, whose wonderful and graceful equitations have won for her the title of the Champion Lady Rider, and who will appear in each performance in her daring acts of horsemanship.

YOUNG ROMEO The Boy Wonder, who is one of the most graceful and Juvenile riders of the age, and whose daring and intrepid acts of horsema ship, warrant the management in challenging the world that his equal in the profession is not of the present day, to the amount of $5,000.

JAMES COOKE, the greatest Rider and Vaulter in this country.

SIG. MONTEVERDI and SIG FERANTIO, two wonderful contortionists.

THE LEOTARD BROTHERS who, in the contest of the Acrobatic Gymnasts of all nations, in Paris, were awarded the Gold Medal as Champion Gymnasts of the world.

LA PETITE JOSEPHINE, the Cupid Rider.

MASTER GEORGE, the Daring and Dashing Hurdle Rider.

MR. DAN CASTELLO, the popular Jester of the age, who has met with unbounded success East, West, North and South, who will introduce his troupe of Educated Horses, Ponies and Mules, consisting of the far-famed Russian Horse

CZAR!

The Comic Trick Horse FIRE FLY and highly educated Mules TIME THY and ARTEMAS WARD, together with his troupe of Shetland

PONIES.

THE GRAND STREET PAGEANT will leave the Mammoth Pavillion which covers over one acre of ground and which will comfortably accommodate 5,000 persons, at 11 A. M. each day.

Performances will commence Afternoon at 2 o'clock; Evening at 7½ o'clock.

NOTICE.—In order to accommodate Heads of Families, Ladies and Children, and those that wish to avoid the crowd at the Ticket Wagon, can procure them at the National, United States and American Hotels, and Phillips & Crew's Book Store. dec9—d7t

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY!

Darby's Prophylactic Fluid!

The Country is Waking up to its Merits!

What About It!

It will purify the most offensive atmosphere.
It will cleanse and cure Erysipelas, all sorts of sores, ulcers, boils, cuts, wounds, etc.
It will prevent gangrene.
It will cure burns, scalds, and bruises.
It is a perfect pain-killer.
It will destroy and neutralize all animal and vegetable poisons.
It will, therefore, cure stings or bites of insects.
It will cleanse and purify the breath, and hence is an excellent tooth-wash and healthful cosmetic.
It will cure diarrhœa, even the worst chronic case.
It will instantly cure horses of the colic or persons of heartburn.
It will, owing to the bleaching properties of Chlorine, remove all ink spots, mildew, vegetable stains, &c.
It will cure Catarrh.
It will remove rancidity out of butter and lard.
It will, properly used, be more efficacious than any other agent in preventing the spread of contagious diseases, and has frequently done it.
It will, used in bathing, keep the skin healthy, soft and white.

We pledge whatever reputation we may have as honest, truthful gentlemen for the performance of all here claimed for the article and more too.

It is used everywhere by the medical profession as fast as it is introduced, and we respectfully refer to all prominent men of the profession, from very many of whom we have the highest testimonials of praise for the Fluid.

As a convenient article for constant family use it has no superior.

It has a beautiful color, and when the color is gone the virtues of the Fluid are lost. Hence be careful not to get the cork in the bottle of any animal or vegetable substance, and always keep the bottle stopped. After the Fluid has acted the residium is perfectly inert and harmless.

It is taken internally as well as applied externally.

It is cheap, selling only at 50 cents per bottle of half pint.

Everybody Uses it and Praises It! True Merit is the Foundation of its Success!!

Read Some of the Testimony!

Letter from Hon. Alex. A. Stephens, of Ga.]

CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., 29th Sept. 1868.

Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is an article of little cost, but great value. Its domestic as well as medicinal uses are numerous, while its specialties are most wonderful. I have not been without it for ten years, and no head of a family who can afford to have it should be without it.

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

Letter from Hon. A. J. Walker, Montgomery, Ala., Ex-Chief Justice Supreme Court of Ala.]

I have for many years used Darby's Prophylatic Fluid, and have found it exceedingly valuable.—I recommend it to the public confidence as highly useful for the various purposes to which it is applied. A. J. WALKER.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 1868.

Letter from Rev. Jefferson Hamilton, D D., Mobile, Ala., Minister M E. Church, South.]

My family have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid for several years for various purposes, and esteem it very highly. Indeed, I know of no article within the whole range of Chemical preparations so generally and highly recommended by acquaintances as this. J. HAMILTON.

MOBILE, Ala., Sept, 23, 1868.

Letter from Prof. R. T. Brumby, Marietta, Ga.]

I was fifteen years Professor of Chemistry, &c., in the Univ. of Alabama, and eight years in the Univ. of S. C., and I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid possesses all the merit he claims for it. It is very generally known and appreciated in all the Southern States, and is sold by nearly all Southern druggists. R. T. BRUMBY.

MARIETTA, Ga., Oct. 1868.

From Rev. John Matthews, Pastor M. E. South, at Montgomery, Ala.]

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 20, 1868.

Darbys' Prophylactic Fluid is the only medicine kept in my family. We use it for almost everything—burns, bruises, stings, earache, sour stomach, &c., &c. My children, when hurt or bruised, always call at once for Darby's Fluid. We cannot get along well without it. JOHN MATHEWS.

From W. O Tuggle, Esq., Attorney at Law, La Grange, Ga.]

LAGRANGE, GA., Oct., 21, 1868.

I take pleasure in stating that I have found "Darby's Prophylactic Fluid to be an excellent remedy for cutaneous eruptions, chapped skin and bruises. It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant, and my wife states, for the benefit of young mothers, that "Darby's Fluid" is a valuable adjunct to the nursery. W. O. TUGGLE.

From J H. Heustis, M. D., Mobile, Ala., Prof. Mobile Medical College.]

MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 19, 1868.

I have used your Chlorinated Fluid in Hospital and private practice for ten years, and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, foul and indolent ulcers, and as a disinfectant. J. F. HEUSTIS, M. D.

These are but a few of the most recent testimonials received in behalf of the preparation.

It is as useful in winter as in summer, for its disinfecting quality is the least of its really valuable uses.

It is neatly put up in half pint bottles, and sells at 50 cents per bottle.

All Druggists keep it.

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that their labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous readers.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people, Earache Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind, flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.
